main description

La Renardière", which means the foxes' house, is an ancient farm built with local stones, and located in the heart of the village of Chanly, next to the Lesse and to the forest. After they stayed abroad for a long time, Emmanuel and Thérèse Renard have choses this place to create four character B&B rooms. The breakfast is made with local products and it is served in the wide dining room whose ceiling is made with small vaults. You can also be welcomed in Spanish.
